

Sermon Summary
4th of Advent
23rd December 2012

- The prophet Micah gives a message of hope to one of the smallest houses of Israel.
- He reminds them that, even when faced with very powerful foes, namely Assyria, the ANE superpower of its day, they will prevail because of his help.
- The prophet reminds God's people that conventional laws of might and power do not hold sway in God's jurisdiction.
- When we feel powerless or completely outgunned by forces, circumstances or institutions weighed against us, we need to remember God's promise to preserve his people.
